

October Sermon Series

Join the Conversation

Come together with others for an engaging and relevant conversation about the intersection between faith and work, and ways you spend your time during the week. Gather a group on your own, or join Pastor Antonio on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m. Sunday sermons will follow weekly topics. Our work, or vocation, relates not only to paid jobs, but the work of every Christian to live out our faith in volunteer roles, studies, relationships, community life and even retirement.

This series will parallel our celebration of the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation on October 29 and the 60th Anniversary of All Saints on November 5 as we consider one of the greatest theological gifts of Martin Luther — the doctrine of vocation. Every person, no matter their age, has a ministry in their daily life. Come and find new vitality for yours.

- October 1 – What do you want to be when you grow up?
- October 8 – But I hate my job
- October 15 – Redeeming work
- October 22 – Calling or career?
- October 29 – The powers that be (Reformation Sunday)
- November 5 – The God we serve (All Saints Sunday)
